

Your Care Team

NETs are a complicated disease, and successful care and treatment requires the input of a lot of different specialists. These might include:

Nutritionist, Physical Therapist, Palliative Care

Help maintain wellness

Caregivers, Family Members

Monitors your overall health

Nursing Team, Physician Assistants

Operates to remove cancer

Imaging Radiologist

Reads scans

Oncologist

Prescribes medical treatment
Often leads care team

Nuclear Medicine

Doctor

Interventional Radiologist

Treats tumors with liver-directed therapies

Pathologist

Studies tumor tissue, assists with diagnosis and grading, staging, etc.

Endocrinologist

Specializes in treating hormonal syndromes and symptoms

Treats diseases of the digestive tract and their symptoms

